

Fastest 50 Award Winners announced by Delaware Business Times

50 fast-growing businesses, including Diamond State Financial Group to be recognized in Delaware Business Times' first Fastest 50 Program.

Wilmington, DE – Delaware Business Times has announced its Fastest 50 program and its winners for 2019.

“Ranging from small to large businesses, the 50 businesses to be recognized represent Delaware’s fast-growing business community,” said Rob Martinelli, President/CEO of Today Media and Publisher of Delaware Business Times.

The honorees include Diamond State Financial Group. Ray Bree, CEO and Founder of Diamond State Financial Group commented: “We have an amazing group of young talented team members that are getting better every year. They are making a difference in so many of our clients’ lives - protecting families, helping people to retire on time, sending kids to college. So gratifying for all of us”.

About the Fastest 50 Program

The Fastest 50 Awards will be the largest and among the most anticipated Delaware Business Times awards programs this year. The 50 companies recognized embody the entrepreneurial spirit critical for innovation, leadership, and success.

The winners for 2019, including Diamond State Financial Group were selected on a three-year average of revenue and employee growth.

They will be profiled in the July 23rd issue of Delaware Business Times and celebrated at a black-tie-optional gala on July 25th.

Award is based on a three-year average (2016, 2017, 2018) of steady and/or significant employee and revenue growth. Working with this firm is not a guarantee of future financial results. Investors should conduct their own evaluation.
